-Pope Francis

From the Pastor's Desk:

Dear friends,

You are invited to nominate candidates for the parish council. The parish council is an advisory body to the pastor. Please nominate individuals who are servant leaders who live the fullness of the Catholic faith by sending an email to Mary Tate by June 12, (mary.tate@stpaturbana.org)

God bless you all,
Fr. Anthony

From the Pastor's Desk: 10th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Blameless Not Blamers

If you spend any amount of time around young children, you will quickly realize that they like to pass the blame. If you're lucky, they may even accompany it with an irritating whine. What are they trying to accomplish with this behavior? They are trying to get out of trouble, to avoid punishment, often even twisting the truth to do so. Where do they learn this behavior?

The short answer is from our first parents, the founders of Original Sin. In today's first reading, we see Adam passing the blame to Eve, who then passes the blame to the serpent. While neither of them were untruthful, they were definitely trying to avoid punishment. They knew instantly that they had done wrong and disobeyed God. We all know what happens next. They are evicted from the Garden of Eden and begin to experience pain, hunger, illness and ultimately death.

Although we might be tempted to let this first reading get us down, the second reading reminds us of God's promise of redemption: "the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also... Therefore, we are not discouraged... For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent, should be destroyed, we have a building from God, a dwelling not made with hands, eternal in heaven."

That is why we can exclaim with joy, "Oh happy fault, Oh necessary sin of Adam, which gained for us so great a Redeemer!" Because of Adam's sin, Jesus came down from heaven to save us. But not only did he save us, he made us members of his own family: "For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Knowing we are members of God's family should motivate us to end the cycle of blaming and finger pointing that Adam and Eve started and that we and our children continue. It should encourage us to humbly accept our faults, confess our sins and seek to be blameless in God's sight. It should drive us to instead lift others up by sharing the good news of God's unconditional love. Let's take one small step toward making that happen today.

Many, many thanks to those who have stepped up to help with the pantry garden!! We are always happy to have more helpers to water, weed, and harvest. Please leave a message on the food pantry answering machine with any questions (217-531-7009). And remember to consider planting those extra plants and seeds for our grateful guests at the pantry!

Amount raised over our goal will be returned to us for our parish projects. Thank you.

Interested in beginning or deepening a meditation or contemplation practice? Join fellow parishioners at a weekly in person centering prayer meeting on Thursday from 11:00 am to 12:00pm in the family room at the back of the church. It will be an opportunity to practice and to learn more about how centering can promote meditation and/or contemplation. Contemplation and its companion mysticism has deep roots in Catholicism. It is likely St. Paul of Tarsus was a mystic, and Augustine of Hippo was definitely a mystic. For more information send email to Carl Nelson at chnelson@illinois.edu.
